

TECKEL REBELLE !

-THE REBEL DACHSHUND!-

A puppet and music show — for ages 8 and over

Step into a world that isn't quite so imaginary, where colour becomes the law and dreams take on an unsettling blue hue...

In a town, a boy and his dog live peacefully... until the day the newly crowned king decides to impose a single colour: blue.

Blue clothes, blue birds, blue thoughts. Little by little, the other colours disappear, and so do freedoms. Faced with these authoritarian changes, only the dog dares to growl.

But soon the growls will turn into barks, and paralysing fear will give way to rebellion...

With expressive puppets, spellbinding music and colourful shadow plays, this visual and auditory spectacle transports young and old alike into a modern fable about power, freedom and diversity.

A thought-provoking and poetic tale that playfully reminds us that sometimes it is essential to bark.

Racagnac Productions

Founded in Belgium by visual artists, Racagnac Productions creates puppet shows that are lively, visual, and completely handcrafted. The company focuses on tackling civic and meaningful themes from a child's perspective, combining inventive puppetry, playful humor, and live musical performances.

Project direction and scenography: Isabelle Kennes / Puppets and performance: Philippe Evens and Bernard Gahide / Musical compositions and performance: Delphine Havaux / Stage direction perspective: Jean-Michel Distexhe / Lighting: Bruno Smit

A production of Racagnac Productions

With support from: La Fédération Wallonie-Bruxelles, La Roseraie, Wolubilis, L' Eden, la Zinneke.

The show contains no live spoken text; only pre-recorded soundtracks are used and can be translated into any language.

www.racagnac.be

Diffusion contact:

Anne Jaspard – T +32 85 23 20 05 – annejaspard.diffusion@gmail.com

